Trading on their talent

WorldSkills Australia's annual competition was launched today as aspiring tradies prepare to descend on Brisbane.

The event, which will showcase 500 of Australia's best tradespeople, will be held from May 7-9 at the Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre.

Today's launch in the Queen St Mall marked 50 days to go before the start of the competition and featured activities for those eager to try their hand in the categories of bricklaying, beauty care, sheet metal and hospitality.
